

Ruby Valley Ganesh Kunda trek

Destination: Nepal

Trip Difficulty: Easy-Moderate

Best Season: Anytime around the year

Max Elevation: 4300 m

Ruby Valley Ganesh Kunda Lake Trek is one of the newest trekking routes that offer a large range of cultural and natural variations from the very beginning of the journey to the end. The trek starts from Dundure with a scenic drive by local bus and jeep from Kathmandu as the route takes you to the beautiful Tamang villages of Jharlang, Borang, and Lapa from Lapa you will trek towards Khading which is the largest Gurung village of the region. The village offers a unique traditional culture of the Gurung community as well as the scenery of nature.

For the 3 days of the initial part of this trek is a kind of homestay route then after the village of Khading the trek will be camping for a few days up in the mountain.

This trek has recently been launched to promote the eco-tourism and diverse culture and nature of the off-beaten trek.

The Ruby Valley Gosaikunda Lake trek starts from Kathmandu with a scenic drive to Dundure (7 hrs approximately). The trek starts from Dundure through the fascinating villages of Tamang and Gurung communities with the awe-inspiring views of the mountain sceneries.

Likewise, this trek is halfway for a homestay, and a half trek is camping. However, the camping trek starts from the next day of Khading stayed. The camping trek would be for the 3 days. Nonetheless, this trek is one of the exciting combination journeys of the camping and homestay trek towards the beautiful mountain region of Nepal.

This Trek can do any time of the year with the best possible sights of mountain sceneries.
