

GUIDE AND PORTER HIRE FROM LUKLA

Destination: Nepal

For those who are looking for an independent trekking guide to hiring on this trek. We will help your dream come true now!

If you are Looking for hiring a local Sherpa guide or strong porters from Lukla for your trekking to Everest base camp or any other treks in the Khumbu region then you have come to the right place.

This is the right platform where travelers can get professional trekking and mountaineering guides and porters for trekking and mountaineering in the Everest region. Usually, the travelers or trekkers chose this platform to hire the locals for their trip if they were not joined a trip with the local tour companies.

Hiring a local guide or porter from Lukla gives great benefits for the trekkers that way you can get the real regional expertise who was born in the same region and grow up there, so having a trip with him or her travelers can learn the history of the people and culture in the depth.

The factual benefits of hiring local guides from Lukla

- Save the funds for the guides and porter from and to Kathamndu which costs USD 100 for the guide by airplane
- Experience the local lifestyle and learn the local language
- Get involved directly with his family and with your guides

- Help the local community directly
- Travel in Safety and Comfort with the experienced guides and porters
- Explore the beauty of nature and culture in depth.
- Fair Salary and Benefits for Guides
- Learn the local community, the way of living, and the traditions of the locals.
- Gain Local Expertise
- Support the Local Economy

Why Do I Need to hire a local guide for the Everest Base Camp trek?

Hiring a local guide for the Everest trek or any other treks in Nepal Himalayas is advantageous for a few reasons.

Guided Travel in Nepal

Trekking in Nepal with Guides is responsible for your safety and fun while traveling in the mountains. Or any corner of the world whether you're trekking in the mountains or doing any adventure activities.

You can trek freely and enjoy what you are on without worrying about anything and have a good chance to focus on things that you are doing at the time. Most importantly, safety matters for both social and cultural benefits.

However, hiring a guide, there are many reasons rather than a trek on your own in Nepal, especially at the higher altitude areas in the Himalayas. If you are thinking of taking a local guide or porter then you might have thought about the prices from Lukla-based as well.

Alpine Ramble provides the trekking and mountaineering guides from Lukla and our guides are fully trained and qualified by the government of Nepal. See the prices range of guides and porter as given below,

- A fully experienced and certified guide with decades of experience fee is USD 28 per day that including food, equipment, accommodations, and travel insurance the guide
- An average certified trekking guide fee is only $25 per day includes food, equipment, accommodations, and travel insurance for the guide
- Porter-cum guide who can help your small pack to carry on a trek- USD 24 per day that includes food, equipment, accommodations, and travel insurance for the guide
- A strong local Porter fee is USD 20 per day which includes food, equipment, accommodations, and travel insurance for the guide

Trekking permits costs

- Everest national park permit fee - USD 30 Per person
- Community Fee/ TIMS Card fee- USD 20

Domestic flight cost to Lukla

- Fly from Kathmandu to Lukla - USD 179 per person
- and Lukla to Kathmandu- USD 179 per person

Highlights

- Trek to Everest base camp, the highest mountain in the world
- Conquer high passes and beautiful alpine glaciers
- Experience Sherpa villages and panoramic views
- Explore the local lifestyle and Meet locals during tea house stays

Day to Day Itinerary

Day 1: Arrive at Tribhuvan International Airport Kathmandu

Day 2: Fly to Lukla and Trek to Phakding

Day 3: Phakding to Namche Bazaar

Day 4: Acclimatization Day – Hike to Everest View Hotel

Day 5: Namche to Tengboche

Day 6: Tengboche to Dingboche

Day 7: Acclimatization Day- Hike to Nagarjun hill and return:

Day 8: Dingboche to Lobuche

Day 9: Lobuche to Gorakshep - Everest Base Camp and back to Gorakshep,

Day 10: Gorakshep - Kala Patthar (5545m/11283ft) then trek back to Pheriche

Walking Distance

Day 11: Pheriche to Namche Walking Distance

Day 12: Namche to Lukla

Day 13: Flight from Lukla to Kathmandu

Day 14: Farewell and Departure